The project has the overall objective to enhance the Western Balkans transition to modern, resource-efficient and competitive economies and the specific objective to support the Western Balkans in the implementation of the Green Agenda.

The project fosters progress across all five pillars of the Green Agenda, addressing the challenges of EU ETS MRVA, circular economy, depollution of water, air, and soil, biodiversity, sustainable agriculture, and cross-cutting themes such as green finance, monitoring and reporting, communication, education, and stakeholder participation. The project remains a key instrument in helping WB6 economies transition toward EU standards, fostering climate neutrality by 2050.

“EU4Green” is a comprehensive project that leverages the collective expertise and close collaboration of the economies involved, coordinated by Umweltbundesamt (Environment Agency Austria).

The implementation phase of the agreement concluded in 2022 between the Environment Agency Austria and the European Commission will end at 31st of December 2025.
